Does Your Company Match?

The companies listed below have matching gift programs through which they make donations equal to the contributions of their employees. Sometimes they match contributions of spouses and retirees as well. If your company is listed here, please consider filling out a matching funds form at work today. Forms are available through corporate Human Resources or Personnel offices, and often available online.

For companies using Benevity please look for 'BWB Orchestra - by Bellevue Wolverine Boosters'.

If your company is not listed here, consider contacting your personnel office to see if yours is one of them. (This list is subject to change.)

Employer Matching

The Boeing Company

Please submit your matching gift request online through your internal website Total Access or call 1-866-473-2016. If you volunteered time for a BHS Orchestra event, you can also request funds. For every 25 hours of volunteer service you give to an approved organization, Boeing will donate $250 to the organization. (Volunteer match is currently not available for retirees or non-U.S. employees).

Google

Please submit your matching gift request online through your corporate intranet or call 866-243-6855. If you volunteered time for a BHS Orchestra event, you can also request funds via the Dollars for Doers program.

Microsoft Corporation

Please submit your matching gift request online through your corporate intranet. If you have any questions you can email MS@Easymatch.com or call 800-480-4438. If you volunteered time for a BHS Orchestra event you can also request funds by clicking on the "Volunteer Manager" button on Microsoft's corporate intranet. When you donate 10 volunteer hours, you can submit a volunteer matching gift request for what is eligible under the Microsoft Matching Program Guidelines.

Wells Fargo

Please submit your matching gift request online by accessing mywfgiving.com or calling customer service at 1-888-518-4438. For more information, please contact your company. Wells Fargo does not match volunteer time at this time.
